

Do not reck a good thing going for the american puublic by hurting the DO NOT CALL list. It is our right to talk to who we want to. If you deciede to hurt it mebey a class action suit ahainstt the FCC will be appropriate and don't think you are above. I worked for the federal government and know what the people can do as a group.